

Almost memory

Every time that you say we
Do you think about me
Cause something always bring me back to you
No matter what I say or do
You possess me without spell
You imprison me without cage
Set me free I don't wanna drown one second more in your memory

Life sometimes can be cruel,
I still don't understand its rules
Let me be reassured, tell me, If you still think about me
In some few conversation, In your daily situation
When you talk about our past,
Let me be sure it's not the last

My unblessed romance, I'm still turned on you
I should have known you'd break me heartache,
Untrue lovers do
Now you're gone, I stay haunted,
I've no doubt that you are fine
But tell me why it's so easy
To go back and forth on my mind

You're on to me and all over me
You bring me down, I'm unable to face
I don't want you to be unhappy
I thought you'd want the same for me

Watch me come undone, Trying to hold on Still with you in mind
