

Will we ever die

Born in the sludge, in a biting cold
Out of the dark, all wings unfold
I seek my way to light, overeager and bold
But highly determined to break the mold.

Right in my back, just wind and fire
And straight ahead, my next empire
A candle in the storm, striving to get higher
Clearing the path to my desire

Now that I turned from stones to flesh
Foreverness is my new sky
Wandering like Gilgamesh
Will I ever die ?

Now that you turned from stones to flesh
Foreverness is your new sky
Wandering like Gilgamesh
Will you ever die ?

Now that we turned from stones to flesh
Foreverness is our new sky
Wandering like Gilgamesh
Will we ever die ?

Now that we turned from stones to flesh
Foreverness is our new sky
Wandering like Gilgamesh
We will never die !
